

THE FOURTH SEASON OF THE CRITICALLY-ACCLAIMED DRAMA
"LINCOLN HEIGHTS" COMES TO A CLOSE WITH THE AIRING
OF TWO EPISODES ON NOVEMBER 9th

Burbank, CA (November 3, 2009) – "Lincoln Heights" fourth season comes to an end on Monday, November 9th with two episodes airing, "The Gathering Storm" from 8:00-9:00 p.m. ET and "Lucky" from 9:00-10:00 p.m. ET on ABC Family.

In "The Gathering Storm," Nate Ray struggles with difficult emotions, having just returned home from fighting in Afghanistan, Lizzie stars in her school play and Cassie and Charles talk about taking a break.

Then on "Lucky," Jenn is finally off bed rest and Charles tells Cassie that he's joining the Army. The two surprise everyone by announcing their engagement and because Eddie and Jenn are not entirely supportive, the duo contemplates eloping. Eddie solves a 60-year-old crime involving the racially charged death of a family friend. The episode culminates with the Sutton family rallying around Nate Ray, who recently returned from fighting in Afghanistan and is suffering from PTSD.

"Lincoln Heights" stars Russell Hornsby as Eddie Sutton, Nicki Micheaux as Jenn Sutton, Erica Hubbard as Cassie Sutton, Mishon Ratliff as Tay Sutton, Rhyon Brown as Lizzie Sutton, Robert Adamson as Charles and Michael Warren as Spencer Sutton.

Kathleen McGhee-Anderson is Executive Producer. David Erhman, Dawn Urbont and Dayna Lynne North serve as Co-Executive Producers and Kevin Inch and Anthony Spark as Producers. "Lincoln Heights" is produced by ABC Family/Disney.
