Burbank, CA (December 21, 2009) – While Kaylie's gymnastics career continues to soar, she struggles to help Payson deal with her injuries and, at the same time, tries to keep her arch enemy, Kelly Parker, in check. With all this added pressure, she also has to deal with Marty as her new coach. This leaves her feeling alone, and the only person she can talk to is Carter. And as the girls prepare for competition, they want someone they know and trust to help coach the team, so they conspire to get Marty fired. Meanwhile, Payson's negative feelings about her back injury finally turn into something positive, in "Follow The Leader," an all-new episode of "Make It or Break It," premiering on ABC Family on Monday, January 11, 2010 (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT). Viewers can catch up on all of the drama, dismounts and deceptions in an all day "Make It or Break It" marathon from 11:00 AM-7:00 PM ET/PT.

When Kaylie gets mad because she can't have Sasha as her gymnastics coach, she has to settle for her mother's ex-lover, Marty. Kaylie grapples with being put in the middle of so many secrets and betrayals with her family, her friends and Carter, whom she finally confronts for cheating on her with Lauren. Meanwhile, Emily's grades in math are slipping, and when a tutor is recommended, Chloe hires Razor. Will he help Emily turn her grades into A's, or is it an excuse for more one-on-one time?

After licking the salt from her physical and emotional wounds, Payson finally has a confrontation with Sasha, who in turn helps Payson turn her negative feelings about gymnastics and training into something positive, while finding a new role at The Rock.
